Report on Drug addiction and Significance of voter's day

Dated 11.01.2018

The above program was organized by our college N.S.S. Unit in collaboration with District Meghan Hospital Shivamogga and Zilla Panchayath Shivamogga on 11.01.2018.

Prior to the above program meeting of the college advisory committee under the chairmanship of principal held on 09.01.2018. The members of the committee suggested to invite specialist who can enlighten about drug addiction among the youngsters. Sri.K.C. Basavaraj Director, Mahathma Gandhi Rural Development Trust, was unanimously fixed as the resource person. Also Smt. Vyshali M.L. CEO Zilla Panchayath to deliver the significance of voter's day.

On 11.01.2018 the above program began with invocation by Chaitra M.R. Dr.M.Venkatesh welcome the gathering an introduced the resource persons. Principal of the college presided over the function.

The first lecture was delivered by Sri.K.C. Basavaraj. The speaker highlighted the various types of drug addictions and how it becomes an infatuation in mess. He also indicated the evils of drug addiction in the form of depression, physical and mental weakness and development of suicidal tendency. He concluded that drug addicts convert themselves in to offenders and it is our responsibility to put an end to drug addiction. He recommended that anti-drug addiction campaigns must be held to create awareness about the evils of drug addiction.

The resource person for the second lecture was Smt.Vyshali M.L. She asserted that vote is a powerful tool in the hands of voters. With the help of such votes can change government functionary. She argued that people should not remain absent without casting the valuable vote which determines democracy. 59 N.S.S. volunteers were benefited by this program.

The principal Prof. S.K. Chandrashekar delivered his presidential address, Dr.M.Venkatesh proposed vote of thanks.
